

Nicole Francis, CFP®

Founder
Hudson Advisory Group

Nicole Francis has been lovingly dispensing financial advice since 1987, two years after arriving in New York City. She holds the FINRA Series 6, 7, 26, 63, and 65 securities registrations through Commonwealth Financial Network®, New York State insurance license, and the CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER® certification and the Chartered Retirement Plans Specialist® designation from the College for Financial Planning.

Nicole has worked for firms large and small, but realized that to offer customized, intimate, and impartial advice, she would have to be independent. Nicole started Hudson Advisory Group in 2005 for just that purpose and enjoys seeing her clients through to fruitful retirements, college for kids and grandkids, and having a safety net if life goes off track.
