

Daniel F Rahill, CPA, JD, LL.M. CGMA

Managing Director, Wintrust Wealth Management

Dan Rahill is a Managing Director with Wintrust Wealth Services, serving as a resource for financial advisors for understanding their clients' financial objectives, determining strategies for complex financial and wealth issues for high-net-worth clients and family offices.

Dan frequently lectures to CPA societies, bar associations, family office organizations, trade and industry groups, and colleges and universities. He is published and quoted widely in media, industry and accounting publications such as the Chicago Tribune, Crain's Chicago Business, ABC7 News, Yahoo Finance, and the Illinois CPA Society's Insight Magazine.

Previously, Dan was with KPMG for 27 years and held numerous leadership roles, including Tax Managing Partner of the Chicago Metro Business Unit and Midwest Leader of the Mid-Market Practice. Dan was also a trustee of the KPMG Foundation and served as the Global Lead Partner on many of KPMG's high-profile multinational accounts, privately held companies and family offices. Prior to KPMG, Dan practiced law in Chicago specializing in tax and estate planning. He began his career in audit with Ernst & Young.

Website and Social Media:

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/dan-rahill-aa60695/>

Twitter: <https://twitter.com/drahill>